Silent Tribute

The students and faculty of George Rogers Clark school bow in silent tribute to the passing of Miss Evelyn Carlson, teacher of Latin and English for the past eight and a half years.

Miss Carlson's influence over the girls and boys in Clark cannot be measured in mere words. She gave them more than instruction—she gave whole-heartedly of her strength, her interest, and her time. She believed in the essential goodness of young people, and she was always ready with a cheery smile and encouraging word for the boy or girl in trouble. A tribute from a girl, who was privileged to have Miss Carlson as a teacher, says what is in many of our hearts today:

"She was one of the finest persons I have ever known. She was a real friend."

Her friendliness to everyone, her contagious smile, her enthusiasm for learning, her fine spirit, and her ability to inspire her students, were her contributions which helped make Clark the grand school it now is.

Miss Carlson gave herself to bring the truth to eager minds. She is not dead; she will live on in the personalities she helped to form. She built for Eternity, for she built into the life of Youth.

(The above tribute, written by Principal R. B. Miller, appeared in the Pioneer News Thursday, September 20, following Miss Carlson's death on Sunday, September 16, 1945.)

Miss Evelyn Carlson

In memory of Miss Evelyn Carlson, former Latin teacher, the students of George Rogers Clark High School proudly and humbly dedicate the 1946 Powder Horn.

During her years here with us, Miss Carlson gave unstintingly of her time and energy to aid and encourage the young people whom she loved so well.

With this remembrance and deepest appreciation, we offer a tribute of our everlasting gratitude and admiration.

classroom activities.

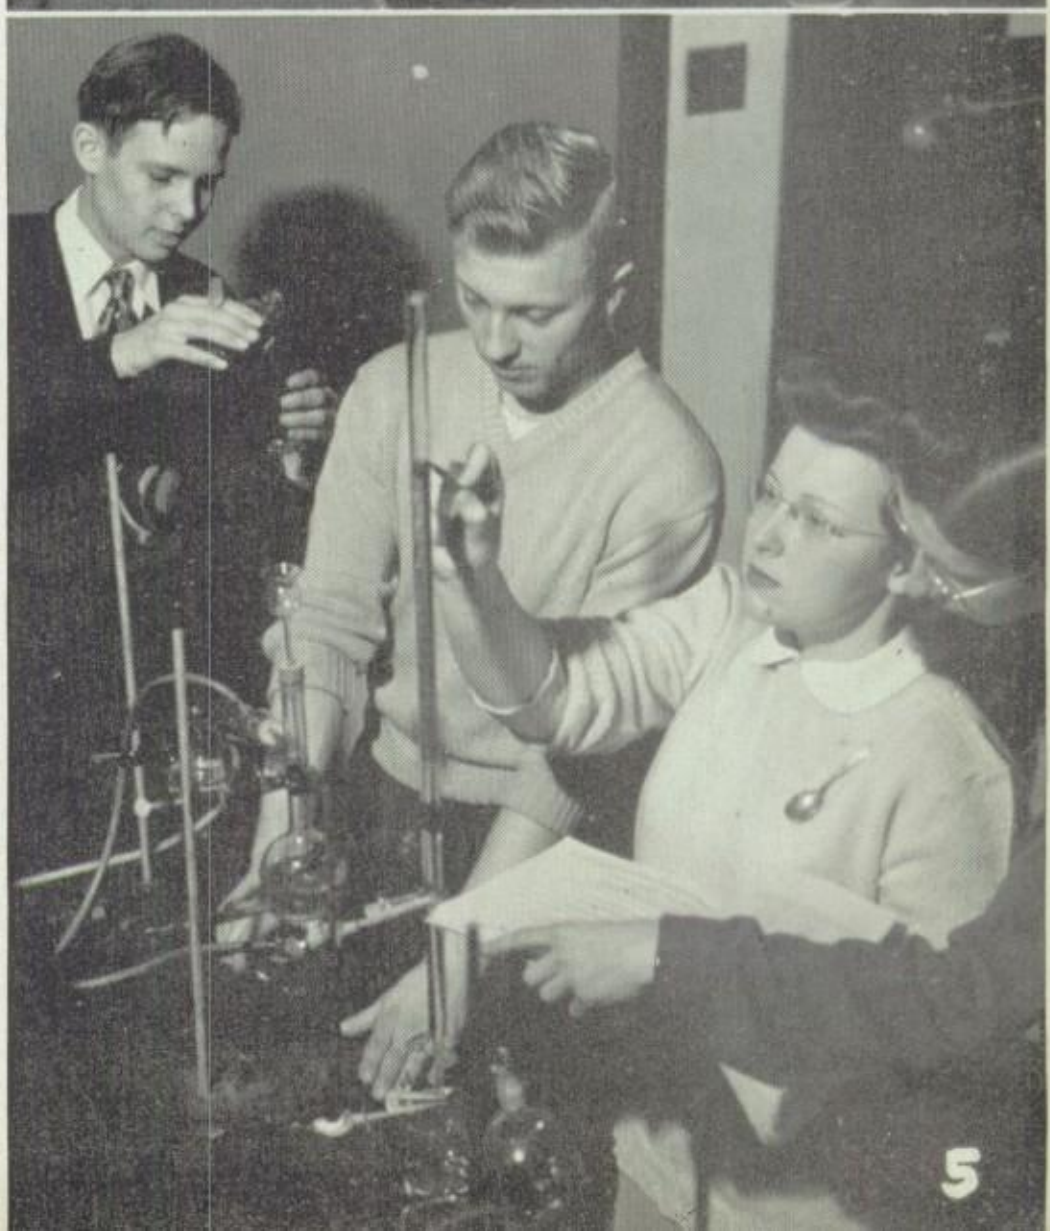
1. The vocal department brings music appreciation to the students as the Triple Trio harmonizes on both classical favorites and well-known popular tunes.

2. Patricia Quinn and Dolores Cross gain practical experience in typing, bookkeeping, and secretarial work by spending part of their time in the school office as student assistants.

3. Mr. R. B. Miller, Miss Emily Johnson, Virginia Canaday, and Phyllis Radermacher form an assembly committee to plan worthwhile, varied programs for the students' entertainment.

4. Margaret Strokey, Betty Fitz, Charlyne Williams, and Shirley Lagerberg learn the importance of first-aid and care of the sick in practical home-nursing classes.

5. Chemistry holds the attention of Dale Duccomun, Vernon Schoeder, Elmira Williams, and Julius Kristoff as they view with fascination the results of another experiment.



"Abeunt Studia in Mores"

Health and physical fitness

1. Marie Stankovic explains the intricacies of the human org nism to a health class with the aid of a lifelike dummy who has become an established part of the class.

2. Phyllis Radermacher provides an interesting candid shot as she works intently on a huge poster in the art department.

3. With physical fitness uppermost in mind, the girls' gym class spends much of its time in enjoying the good, wholesome fun of competitive sports.

4. Ken Zuver, John Miller, Bill Vacendak, and Ed Schuman use hammer, plane, and saw in shaping and building articles from wood during shop class.

5. Ed Leisge and Leonard Blastick peer through their microscopes into the minute world of the amoeba and the protozoan during biology class.

of a versatile personality.

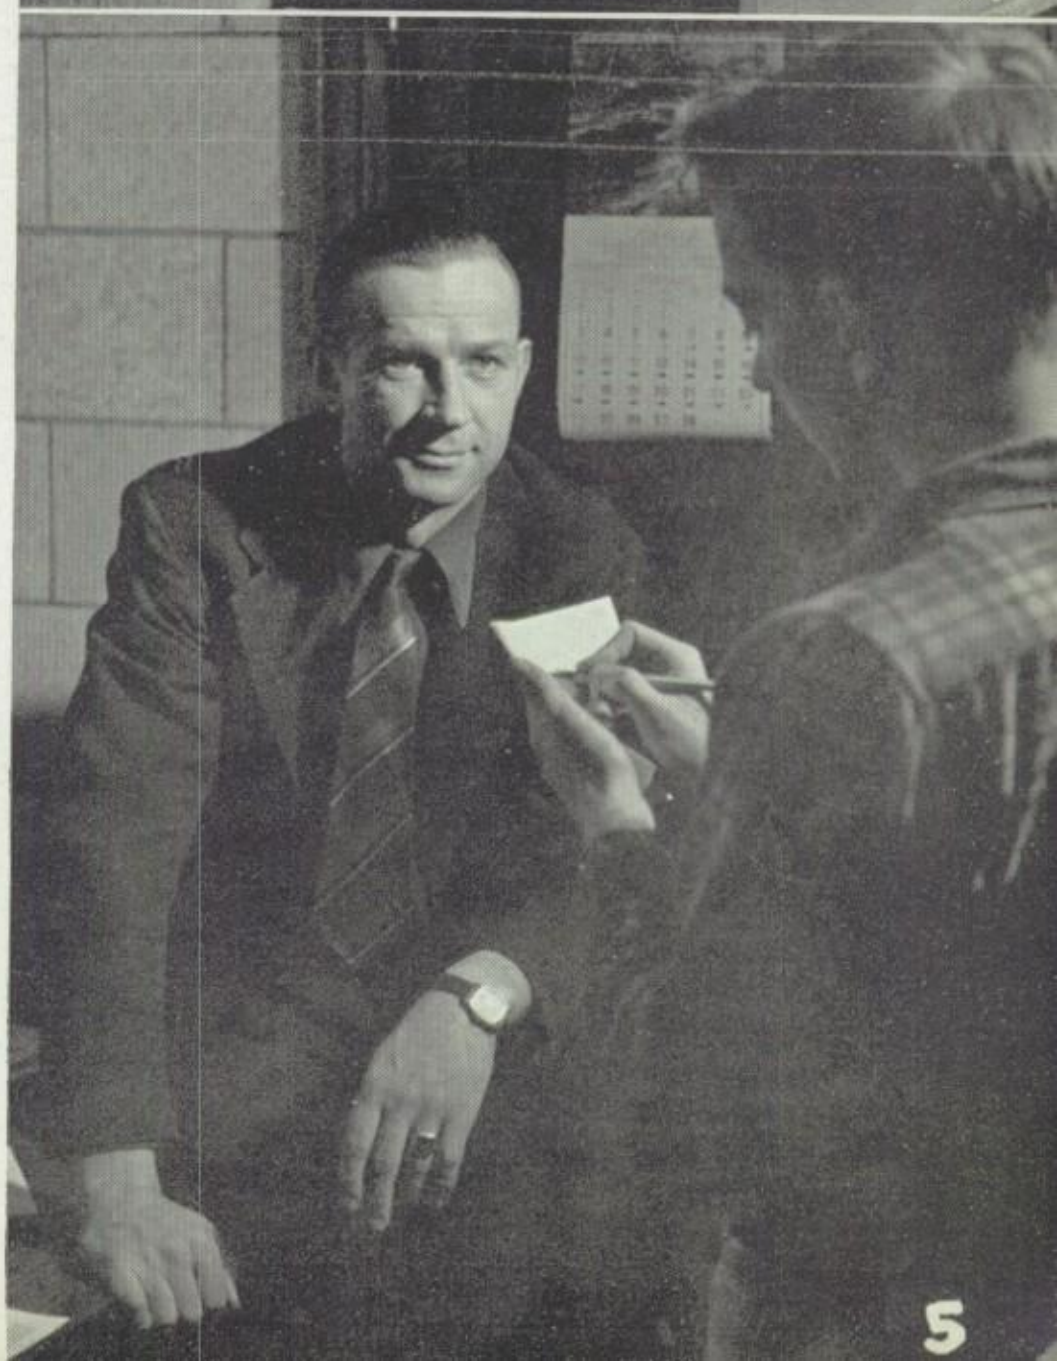
1. Mary Lou Turner, Ina Jean Linn, Esther Rusnak, and Elaine McCoy learn to plan, prepare, and serve nutritious meals in the girls' food classes.

2. T-squares and blueprints are no mystery to Ray Walendowski and Buddy Jacobs as they prepare to lay their ideas on paper in the mechanical drawing class.

3. Pat Hadley, Betty Barrix, Lucille Murovich, and Jeannine Lange lead the band through difficult maneuvers while performing tricky feats with their batons.

4. Gloria Benetich and Theresa Pavlovic spend their study time working in the library, servicing and checking books and helping keep attendance records.

5. Joe Rueff, student reporter, interviews Coach Arvo Antilla for a sports scoop which he will publish in the Pioneer News, weekly school paper.



"Mens Sana in Corpore Sano"

Fine arts and practical

1. With appropriate gestures and an air of complete ease, Joe Puncho addresses the public speaking class, thus putting into practice the principles of good speech which he has learned.

2. Proving that Latin is not a "dead" language, Roma Atchison, Ray Buell, Bob Auer, and Jeannine Lang find pleasure in translating tales of Caesar and ancient Rome.

3. Ed Filkowski uses super-salesmanship to persuade Helen Trucksa and Al Fetzko to buy his merchandise during a class in retailing.

4. Frank Long, Paul Voreacos, and Art Powell find the maze of trigonometry baffling but interesting as they juggle sines and tangents.

5. Demonstrating that boys have home-making instincts too, Roger Kroush, Andy Banas, and Bill Figler turn their talents to cooking during the boys' food class.

ADMINISTRATION

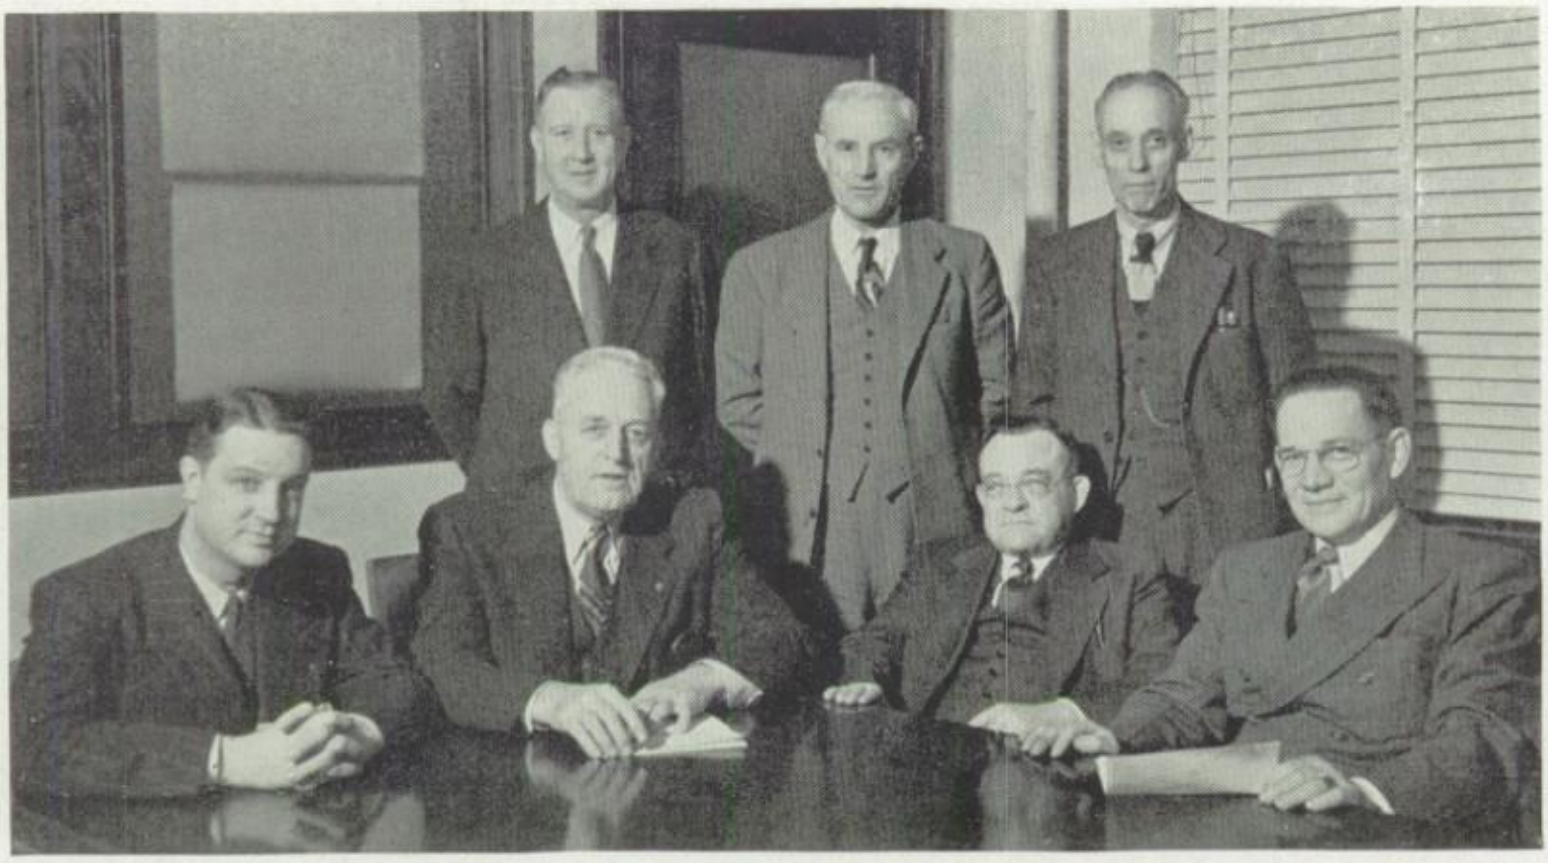
GUIDANCE COUNSELORS
Miss Pearl Yocham and Mr. Paul Wilkinson

UNDER the guiding hand of Principal R. B. Miller, the students of George Rogers Clark High School find helpful advice and sincere encouragement when visiting the administrator's office.

Mr. Miller, who has been principal of Clark since it was founded in February, 1932, is never too busy to offer a friendly smile and a few pleasant words to his boys and girls.

MISS Pearl Yocham and Mr. Paul Wilkinson together share the office of guidance counselor at Clark in directing the curriculum and activities of the students.

It is through their constant effort that the school's program is kept running smoothly. Each student, throughout his four years in high school, receives individual care from Miss Yocham and Mr. Wilkinson in arranging his studies.



BOARD OF EDUCATION

Standing: Mr. Claude C. Sohl, Mr. Charles N. Scott (secretary) Dr. Clarence A. McVey.

Seated: Mr. Walter Thornton (president), Mr. Lee L. Caldwell (superintendent), Mr. Gerald A. Gilbert (attorney), Mr. Columbus Smith (treasurer).

THE present Board of School Trustees, under the leadership of Superintendent Lee L. Caldwell, consists of Mr. Walter Thornton, president; Mr. Charles N. Scott, secretary; Mr. Columbus Smith, treasurer; Mr. Claude C. Sohl and Dr. Clarence A. McVey, members-at-large; and Mr. Gerald A. Gillett, attorney.

Composed of five members elected for a four-year term, the board is in charge of operating the entire Hammond school system. It is under their guidance that the programs in the various schools are carried out efficiently and speedily.

MISS Pat Willig and Miss Melba Johnson supervise the school office and take care of the secretarial needs of both the faculty and the students.

Their cheerfulness and eagerness to help at all times lend a friendly, informal atmosphere to the business transactions which are carried on throughout the entire day in Clark's office.

OUR FACULTY

In the confusion and chaos that mark a world returning to peace, the students of today require more help and thoughtful guidance in planning for a place in society than they have ever needed before.

Once again the teachers have met this need and have aided the students through intensified courses of study, practical demonstrations, and open forums of discussion and counsel.

The faculty of Clark has endeavored to impress each student with the necessity of providing security and a well-planned future for himself in later life.

Although teaching was seriously hampered this year by the severe shortage of instructors, the students were given the same considerate attention in both their studies and their outside activities.

This year saw the addition of several instructors to the GRC staff. Included among the new teachers were Mr. W. R. Dunk, Miss Fredda Goodwin, Mr. Henry Zevenhouse, Mr. Kenneth Meyers, Miss Lulu Moore, Mr. Joseph Franklin, Mr. Alan Lundgren, and Mr. Arthur Erickson.

Replacing Mr. Dunk and Miss Goodwin at the beginning of the second semester were Mr. Edwin Martin and Mrs. James Palmore.

Two of Clark's outstanding male teachers, Mr. Joe Griffin and Mr. Wayne Cunningham, resigned from the faculty this year to take up other positions.

A series of feature stories reflecting the school's guidance program were written by Miss Pearl Yocham, guidance director, for publication in the Pioneer News. Miss Veva McAtee, Mr. Joe Griffin, and Principal R. B. Miller also wrote articles for the school paper.

Standing: Mrs. Vera Walden, Miss Bernice Williamson, Miss Emma Bender, Miss Emily Johnson, Miss Marjorie Groves, Miss Winifred Forsyth, Miss Catherine White, Miss Clellah Griffin, Miss Ida Iversen, Miss Beatrice Northstrum, Miss Helen Day, Miss Carolyn Lambert.

Seated: Miss Hazel Holland, Miss Lulu Moore, Miss Wilma Range, Miss Harriet Lake, Miss Joan Coughlan, Miss Edna Howe, Miss Elizabeth Lyle, Miss Leah Booth, Miss Margaret Ide.

GRC students strive for improved standards of education and

CLASSES

A people's culture rests with the knowledge which has been accumulated through the years by members of society everywhere. At Clark each student in the various classes attempts to expand his wisdom by improving the standards of education within the school and by striving for higher ideals of culture.

Top: Boasting one of the finest libraries in the state, Clark offers both good reading and pleasant surroundings to the students during their study periods.

Lower left: Shorthand students learn the importance of good posture, alert minds, and constant study in order to become efficient stenographers.

Left to right: Miss Bernice Williamson (sponsor), Shirley Lagerberg (secretary), Al Kwiatowski (president), Ed Filkowski (treasurer, Rudy Podsadecki (vice-president).

1943

In 1943 Miss Bernice Williamson accepted sponsorship of the energetic "freshies" and lost no time in organizing the class.

The members elected J. D. Schlatter, president; Melba Johnson, vice-president; Corlis Thomas, secretary; and James Mullins, treasurer. Their first social attempt was "Swing Inn" presented March 15.

Freshmen participated in athletics and speech work and promised to make their four years eventful ones.

Resuming high school, the sophomores elected Bernard Kotarski, president; J. D. Schlatter, vice-president; Corlis Thomas, secretary; and James Mullins, treasurer.

The "Pilgrims' Prance," annual Thanksgiving dance, November 24, was a marked success for the "sophs."

Speech, athletics, and other activities continued to attract members of this class.

Continuing under the able guidance of Miss Williamson, the juniors elected Vernon Schroeder, president; Harold Morris, vice-president; Dorothea Walsko, secretary; and Nick Smaluk, treasurer.

During the year the class presented an all-school amateur hour; an after-exam dance, "Record Breaker," January 25; and "The Torch-Bearers," class play, May 4.

The junior prom, "Coral Caverns," was held June 1 in the school gym.

Commencing their final year, the seniors chose Alfred Kwiatowski, president; Rudolph Podsadecki, vice-president; Shirley Lagerberg, secretary; and Edward Filkowski, treasurer.

They presented "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" November 15-16 and "Icy Interlude" December 27.

A picnic at the dunes on the day before graduation, June 12, was the final class get-together.

Desires and ambitions of students express themselves in GRC clubs and organizations.

ACTIVITIES

Through the clubs and organizations of Clark, the student finds true expression of his innermost desires and ambitions. Here he seeks to establish himself as a part of society and to adjust his interests with those of others about him. He learns responsibility and the satisfaction which comes from working with his classmates toward a common goal.

Top: Student Council President Jim Mullins delivers an address in the school auditorium while Bill Elster, Dorothea Walsko, J. D. Schlatter, and Jane Campbell listen attentively.

Lower left: Pioneer News Mimeographers Dorothy Barilla, Dorothy Potucek, and Marian Misch go through their weekly routine in putting out the school paper.

Lower right: Lucille Murovich, Richard Mores, Harold Morris, and Corlis Thomas visualize their ideas by sketching them on paper during art class.

Standing: Miss Pearl Yocham (sponsor).

Leadership, scholarship, character, and service—

These are the qualifications necessary to become a member of the National Honor Society. Its objectives are to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to promote worthy leadership, and to stimulate a desire to render service. The organization this year had a membership of twenty-six juniors and seniors, including the four officers who were elected last year. Miss Pearl Yocham is the sponsor.

Under the club's sponsorship, the Harold Zimmer Memorial Award is given each year to a senior boy who excells in scholarship, athletic skill, and fine sportsmanship. This year the name of Walter Donham, class valedictorian, was inscribed on the award plaque.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, composed of capable leaders chosen from the home rooms, is the legislative body at Clark.

With Principal R. B. Miller as sponsor, the council conducted many projects this year. Among the most important were the frequent paper drives that were held to get sufficient funds for outside assemblies. One assembly featured Lieutenant James C. Whitaker, one of the seven Rickenbacker survivors.

The school's goal for the Eighth War Loan Drive was set at $15,000. Through the efforts of the Student Council Stamp and Bond committee, headed by Corlis Thomas, the goal was topped by $8,973.65.

Continuing the Student Panel, instituted last spring in place of ninth hours, the council made greater strides in student government. The panel was composed of students who were chosen on the basis of their good judgment, and it dealt with chronic cases of absenteeism, tardiness, and misdemeanors that needed punishment.

Standing: Mullins (president), Cravens, Jones, McClaughry, Endres, Bates, Burnett, Seehausen, Blacklock, Vobach, Schroeder, Gasenica, Levitt, Gundy, Isberg, Donham, Klepach, Bresick, Martich.

Clark's Junior Red Cross, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Vera Walden and the capable leadership of President Frances Argus, collected and distributed articles to the hospitalized veterans of World War II and the underprivileged children of Europe.

Included in this year's Red Cross production were: educational gift boxes, cards, bridge scores, scrapbooks, joke books, pocketbook editions, memo pads, crossword puzzles, jigsaw puzzles, marble bags, bean bags, Chinese checker boards, slippers, and afghans.

As in previous years, the Red Cross made stuffed animals and toys which were dispensed during Christmas to the children at local orphanages.

Co-operating with the Lake County chapter of the Red Cross, the club made individual gifts for tthe patients of the tuberculosis sanitarium at Crown Point.

Standing: Olenus, Kilduski, Arendas, Saliga, Dubeck, George, Cross, Potucek, Misch, Henrikson, Canady, Brady, Whelan, Slater, Opat, Blastic, Eggers, Fasiang, McCoy, Cox.

SERVICE CLUB

Standing: Corbin, Erwin Campbell, Kaminsky, Kristoff, Fauth, Biedron, Eberly, Ullrich, Hoppe, Sponsors Mr. Edwin Martin and Miss Ellen Viney.

Top row seated: Jean Campbell, Dzurovcik, Lukas.

Second row: Filas, Smeberg, Letcher.
First row: Benetich, Bunchek, Pivarnik.

Serving the students and faculty at all times, the Patrol and Service Clubs did a fine job again this year.

The beginning of the year saw a critical shortage of patrol boys, but with the help of Mr. Zevenhouse, Clark patrol sponsor, a staff of approximately 35 was acquired. Each boy in the squad had certain hours during which he guarded the street crossings in the vicinity of the school.

The Service Club, under the direction of Miss Ellen Viney, had as its main duty the task of caring for elementary grade pupils during the noon hour.

Lockets are awarded to those who have four years of service in the club, while a letter is given for two years of service.

GIRL RESERVES

The first post-war Girl Reserve Club started off with a bang when Big Sister Week ended in October with a weiner roast at the beach. The purpose of Big Sister Week was to acquaint the many new members with Clark School through its older members.

Initiation for new members was held in November in a very impressive original candlelighting ceremony. Officers and members attended monthly meetings at the YWCA in Hammond. The group consisted of girls from Hammond High, Tech, Morton, and Clark. It was called the "Inter-Club Council." Through this council the GR's achieved a closer union between the girls of other schools.

Because the Girl Reserves was such a large group, 150 members, the cabinet decided soon after the Christmas meeting to establish a point system similar to that of the Hi-Y. Points will be given in coming years for attendance, committee work, and volunteer jobs. This new system was worked out to interest the girls in the club's purpose—"Service."

Projects for the year consisted of donations to the Carmelite Orphanage in Hammond, an Easter assembly, interesting programs for the members at their bi-weekly meetings, and an entire revision of the club's constitution.

This year the Girl Reserves tried hard to live up to their high ideals. Under the inspiring guidance of Miss Margaret Ide and Miss Edna Howe, co-sponsors, the club members strived to make themselves worthy of an important nation-wide organization.

First row: Bob Hannemann, Powell, Prahlow, Nelson, Voreacos, Long, Schroeder, Zuver, Jordan.

HI-Y

With capable diligence the Hi-Y Club, sponsored by Mr. Paul Wilkinson and guided by President Jim Mullins, strove constantly to achieve its purpose: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

Continuing a long tradition of service to the school, the club sponsored Mr. Campbell, noted song leader, in an assembly program. Money earned through milk- and pop-selling projects was used to maintain the honor plaque for Clark graduates in the Armed Forces, to sponsor a "Get-Acquainted Dance" at the first of the school year, and to hold the annual home-room basketball tournament.

Members of the club also participated in interscholastic and intramural club activities. Twenty-four boys journeyed to the Fall District Conference at Gary Roosevelt school and 18 members attended the State Older Boys' Conference at Terre Haute. For the first time in club history, the Clark chapter served as host at the Spring District Planning Conference.

FORUM CLUB

Under the guidance of Mr. Joe Griffin and Mr. Arthur Erickson, the Forum Club presented several guest speakers and held numerous discussion groups this year.

Among the important guests were George Mikan, star center of the De Paul University basketball team, and Judge Joseph Stodola of the Lake County Superior Court, who spoke on "Divorce and the Juvenile Delinquent."

Open discussions were held for the members to express their opinions as the principles of true democracy were practiced.

CLUB MEMBERS

Arendas, Argus, Balog, Barilla, Beckman, Boyd, Bresick, Buell, Burosh, Campbell, Canaday, Cannells, Cotner, Cross, Dolak, Donham, Ducommun, Eddy, Elster, Etter, Fasiang, Franchimont, Gasenica, Greenburg, Grindle, Gundy, Haehnel (secretary), Halliar, Hanish, Henrikson, Howarth, Hudak, Ivan, Jones, Kania, Kilduski, Klepach, Kosior, Kotarski, Koval, Kubayko, Kuentzel, Kulpa, Kuzminski, Lagerberg, Larson, Ledna, Lindquist, Linn (secretary), Long, Malatin, Malatinka, Maley, Mayernik, McCampbell, Barbara Milnik, McCampbell, Barbara Miller, John Miller, Misch, Molson, Morris, Mullins, Murovich, Olenus, Don Osborne, Elaine Osborne, Ourant, Pastorcik, Pavlovic, Peters (treasurer), Pierce, Porter, Potucek, Prahlow, Quinn, Radermacher, Dave Roberts, Sally Roberts, Ruebhausen, Rueff, Runick, Ryckman (president), Salmon, Schlatteh, Schroeder, Sciacero, Sikla, Skurka, Slingsby, Smaluk, Smith, Stam, Studer, Stumph, Sullivan, Tallman, Thomas, Tolley, Trucksa, Turner, Art Ustanik, Florence Ustanik, Vobach, Voreacos, Walsko, Wayo, Wiley (vice-president), Williams, Wilson, Zuver.

Trombones: Erickson, Malatin, Horst, Henry.

Baritoness Galambos, Vladika (vice-president), Malloy.

Basses: Etter, Jordan (president), Kammer, Schuman.

Percussion: Long, Rueff, Eberly, Banks.

Clark's 54-member band, directed by Mr. Carlyle Snider, began a busy year by marching and playing for home football games. Jim Eggers was the drum major this year.

During basketball season a 24-piece pep band helped lead student boosters for home games. The band also aided in arousing student enthusiasm for football and basketball games during pep assemblies.

The Crown Point High School Band presented a concert for Clark students, and in exchange Clark band gave a program at Crown Point High School.

The band donned its blue and gray uniforms to march in both the Whiting and Hammond Halloween parades.

The band and orchestra presented a mid-winter concert January 23, and the band gave its spring concert May 24. It also presented an assembly program for the students.

Sixteen solos and 17 ensembles from the band entered the annual district solo and ensemble contest at Valparaiso. Seven solos and 16 ensembles competed in the Indiana State Contest at Nappanee. Three solos and 13 ensembles won state first-division ratings.

Flutes: Burnett, Jo Ann Endres, Anderson, Jacobs.

Oboe: Economou.

Clarinets: Mandas, Stumph (secretary), Kristoff, Peterson, Voreacos, Elaine Osborne, Sass, Argus, Dorothy Stawitcke, Isaacs, Quisenberry, Bruce Osborne, McKibben.

Bass Clarinet: Norman Jones.

Basses: Ducommun, Don Ullrich, Kauchak, Obuch, Powell, Hornyak, Bill Ullrich.

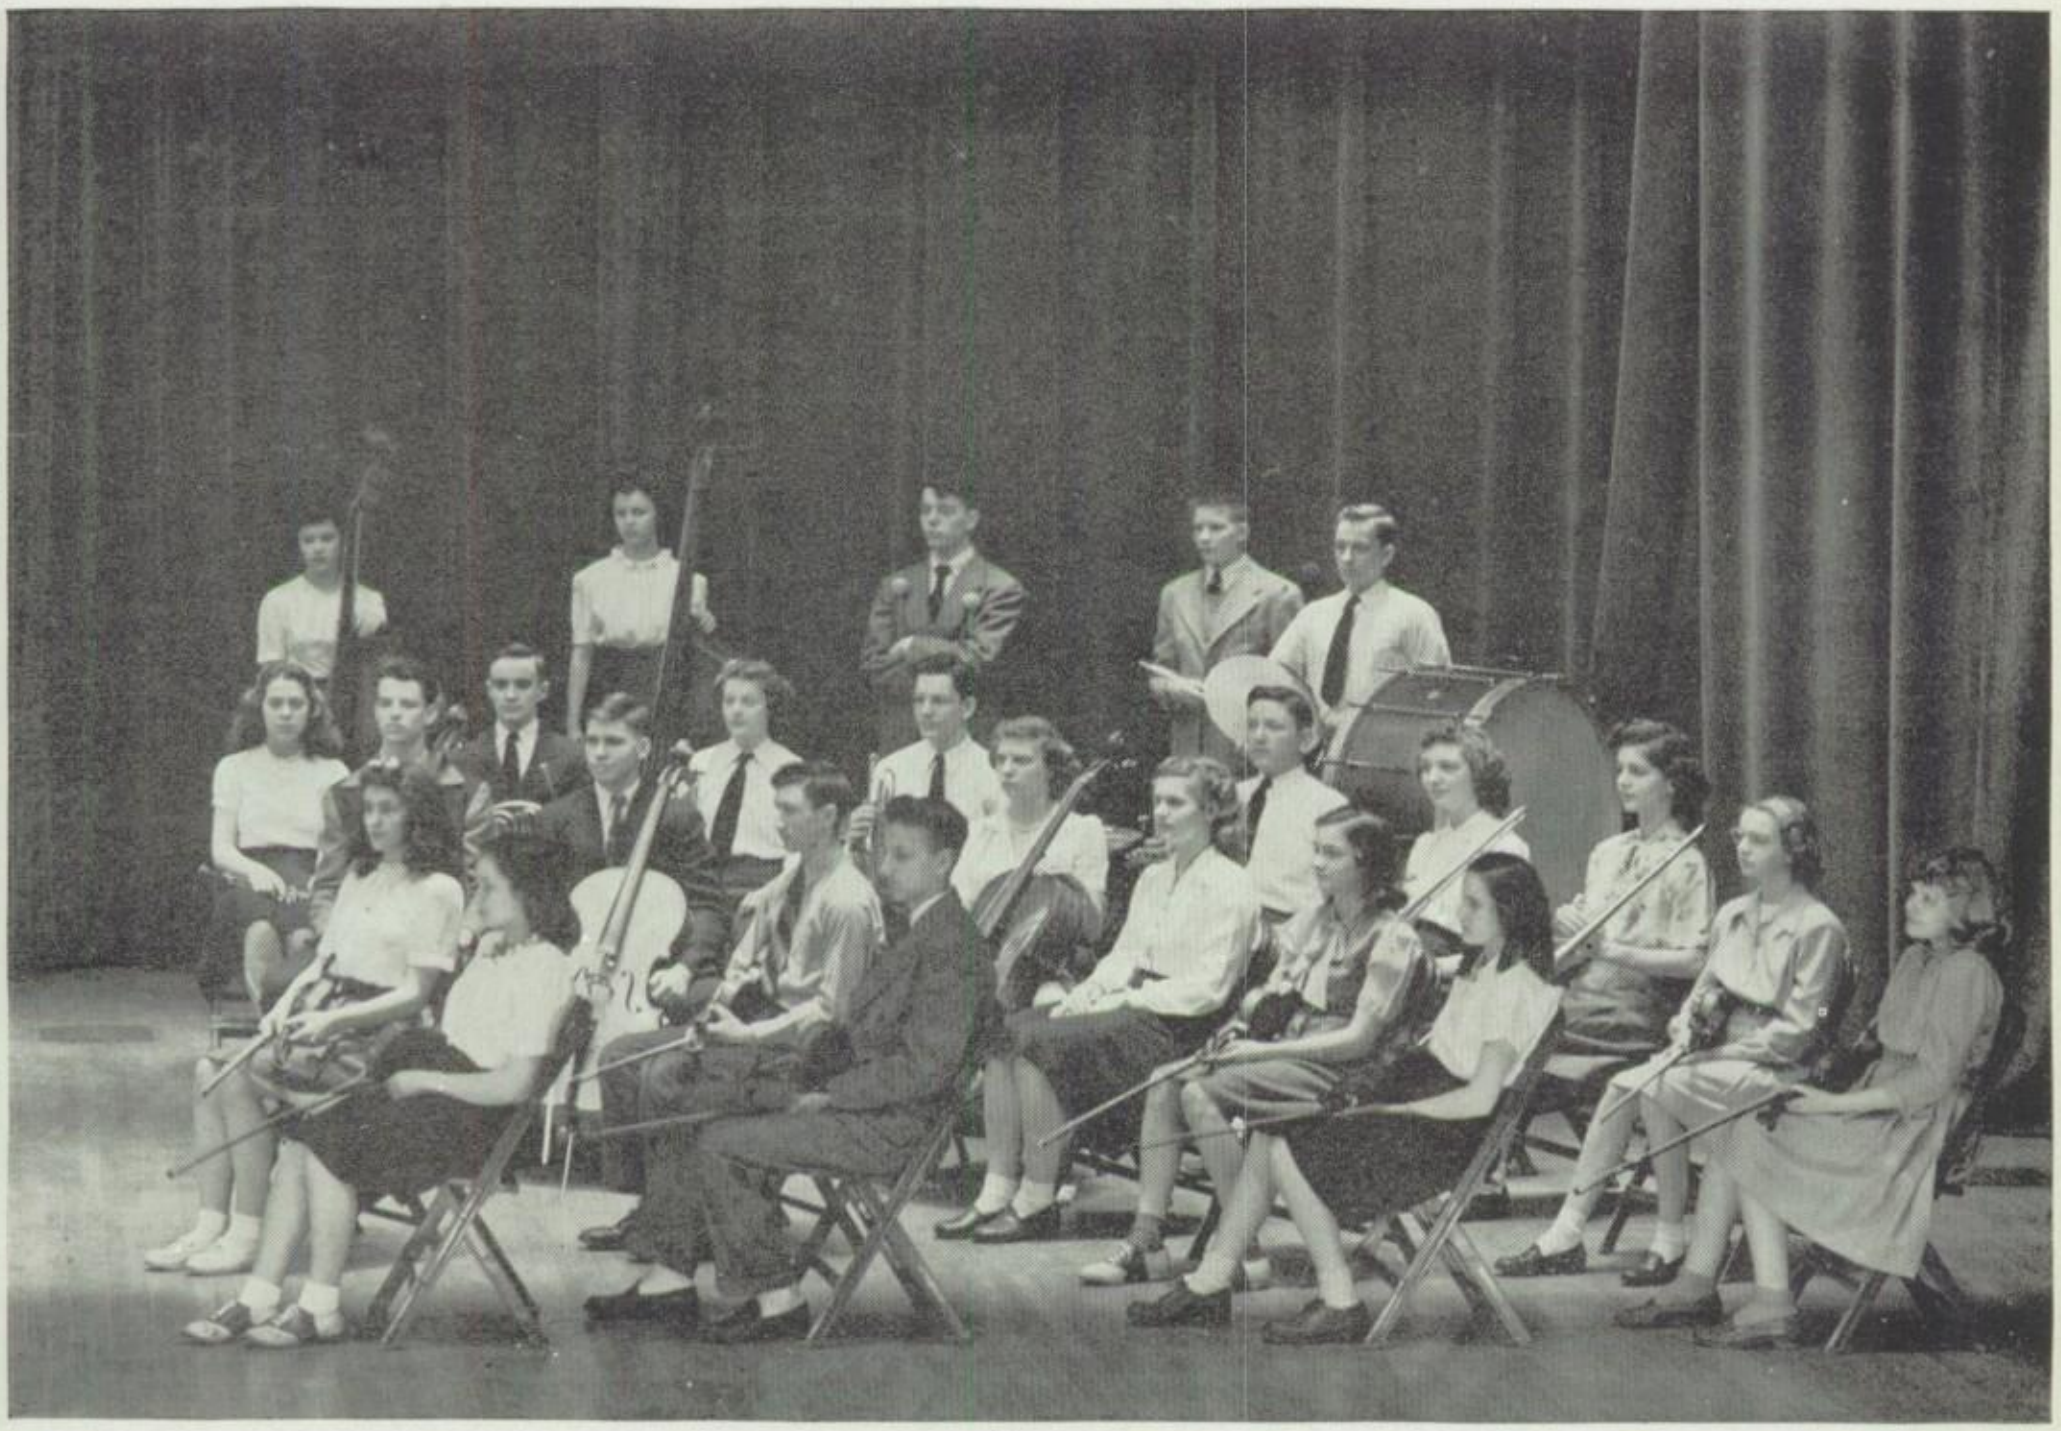
Flutes: Burnet, Endres.

Oboe: Economou.

Playing for concerts, special programs, assemblies, and plays kept members of the orchestra occupied this year.

Directed by Mr. Darwin Eret, the orchestra, along with the band, presented a mid-winter concert, at which Franz Schubert's "Unfinished symphony" was played.

The orchestra provided between-act music for the senior and junior plays and played for the operetta, "Daniel Boone." In February the vocal music department presented "Winter Carnival," for which the orchestra also furnished music.



ORCHESTRA

During March orchestra members divided into two teams to sell magazine subscriptions. Bill Elster's team, the "Whiz Kids," won by earning more money than the "Fizz Kids," led by Chalmers Smith. The profits were used to purchase badly-needed music supplies.

An assembly was presented April 24 in which Franz von Suppe's "Pique Dame Overture" and Borodin's "On the Steppes of Central Asia" were played. Orchestra members also furnished music for the annual style show given by the clothing classes and for Baccalaureate and Commencement.

Horn: Mullins.
Clarinets: Peterson, Voreacos.
Cornets: Creswell, Fisher.
Trombones: Erickson, Horst.
Drums: Eberly, Tallman.
Tympani: Long.

VOCAL MUSIC

Clark's vocal music department, under the leadership of Miss Wilma Range, participated in many activities this year.

All of the vocal music classes were in the Christmas assembly program and the "Winter Carnival." The latter was written by Bill Korencik, sophomore.

In March the classes presented "Daniel Boone," acclaimed to be one of Clark's finest operettas. Donald Eddy, junior, portrayed the title role.

The triple trio sang for a Book Week assembly in November and for the Hi-Y Convention in March. The double sextet provided music for the Congregational Church Service Club, and sang with the triple trio for the Easter assembly and Commencement. These two groups also sang carols in the halls before Christmas vacation.

Eight girls from the vocal music department entered the solo contest at Valparaiso, and seven sang in the state contest at Nappanee.

LATIN AND SPANISH CLUB

Foreign language clubs are an essential part of Clark's activities. With four Latin Clubs and three Spanish Clubs, the students are beginning to realize that people of other ages and countries recorded their culture in their languages.

LATIN CLUBS

The Latin Clubs, under the sponsorship of Miss Lulu Moore, met bi-weekly during class periods. Reports were given at that time about Roman life and its history. The members played Latin games. They also enjoyed outings, such as a roller skating party, and parties commemorating important holidays.

The annual Latin picnic was held May 23. The members were dressed befitting their rank. The first year students were the slaves, and the second year students were royalty. Thus ended a profitable year for the Latin students.

SPANISH CLUBS

"Buenos dias, amigos!" This was the greeting of many Spanish students when they were able to speak the Spanish language. Through special reports at their monthly meetings, these linguists were able to become acquainted with our many Latin American neighbors. Speakers who had been to these various places gave them an insight into the real country. They learned about quaint customs and other ways of life in our closest neighbor, Mexico.

Outings were also enjoyed by the members under the sponsorship of Miss Hazel Holland. They planned a picnic and other small parties on class time. Many of the second year students attended a Spanish movie in Indiana Harbor during the spring.

LATIN I CLUB

Top row: Siska, Hargrove, Sinai, Smith, Campbell (treasurer), Eberly, Witt, Hotchkiss (vice-president), Bauer, Banas (president), Labda, Quigley (president), Biedron, Svitek, Jacobs, Krull, Bokori, DeForest, Argus, Fauth, Cox, Wetnight (treasurer).

Second row: Kessler (vice-president), Palagyi, Shoemaker, Slater, Levent, Curry, Gallagher, Misch (secretary), Hanchar, Obuch, Harms (secretary), Graham, Gonsiorowski, Lockridge, Foster, Blastic, Lukas, Cherechinsky.

First row: Brady, Kowalski, Bunchek, Catchur, Evans, Dzurovcik, Snell, Striko, Goldstein, Pavelchak, Miss Lulu Moore (sponsor).

LATIN II CLUB

Third row: Auer, Anderson, Blood, Huspek, Farley, Hoppe, Easter, Haugh, Creswell, Burnett (president), Adams, Oak, Emolovich, Kowalski, Dominik, Peterson, Whelan, Ralph, Kreiger.

Second row: Endres, Tekar, Lange, Theodora Economou, Benetich, Trebs, Pivarnik (secretary), McClaughry (secretary), Seehausen, Wilkinson, Voreacos.

First row: Mandas, Klepach, Davidson, Wetnight (treasurer), Hadley, Korenchik, Doris, Bob Hannemann, Kristoff, French, Schroeder (vice-president).

SPANISH CLUBS

SPEECH

Third row: Bill Vobach, Rueff, Radermacher (NFL president), Pivarnik, Miller, Burosh, Hill, Theodore Economou, Eberly.

Second row: Bob Hannemann, Hadley, Argus, Don Hannemann, Raleigh Vobach, Wiley, Smith, Paul Voreacos, Mr. Arthur Erickson (sponsor).

Seated: McClaughry, Cravens, Kissen, Eugenia Voreacos, Goldstein, Hoppe, Theodora Economou.
At rostrum: Haehnel.

Adding more laurels to GRC, 24 orators from Clark finished the year by winning first individual speaking honors as a team in the National Forensic League State Contest at Hammond High.

Phyllis Radermacher was president of the chapter, while Mr. Arthur Erickson served as sponsor.

Among the individual triumphs of the year were state championships in extemporaneous speaking and oratorical declamation won by Bill Vobach and Ted Wiley, respectively. Bill also placed second in original oratory; Joan Haehnel won third in dramatic declamation.

In the NFL final extemporaneous contest at Evanston, Illinois, Bill ranked third in the nation. Ted placed third in the District American Legion Contest, while Bill ranked second in the District Rotary Speech Contest.

DEBATE

Despite the apparent handicap of changing sponsorship during mid-season, the debate squad finished its most ambitious season by winning the Calumet League championship and by placing fourth among the 17 schools of the Metropolitan Debate Union. The team lost only 78 of 273 debates held during the season.

Mr. Joe Griffin, now practicing law in Iowa, served as first semester sponsor, and Mr. Arthur Erickson, a faculty member returned from the Armed Forces, succeeded him.

Debating the question of compulsory military training, the team attended tournaments held at LaPorte, Hammond, West Aurora, Elgin, and New Trier. It also served as host to a varsity meet and a freshman-sophomore tournament.

Standing: Mr. Arthur Erickson (sponsor), Wiley, Vobach, Voreacos, Hill, Rueff.

Seated: Miller, Burosh, Pivarnity, Radermacher.

C CLUB

Sponsored by the C Club, the annual "In and Out" game took a new turn when next year's varsity basketball candidates, coached by George Peters, won over the seniors, led by Harold Swanson, by a score of 32-20.

Honor was awarded individuals who were outstanding in the various sports at the annual C Club banquet. Joe Gulvas was doubly honored by receiving both the C Club all-round award and the most valuable in football award.

Gerald Labda was declared most valuable in basketball and George Peters received the best mental attitude award in basketball. The best mental attitude award in football was given to Rudy Podsadecki.

Awards for being valuable in other sports were as follows:

Bernard Szypczak, tennis; George Bobos, cross-country; Milan Manchak, wrestling; Ed Langohr, golf; and Harold Morris, track (1945).

Top row: Porter, Cole, Gasenica, Ourant, Mores, Cotner, Selmon, Roberts, Fauth, Kauchak, Kender, Donham, Zuver, Lindquist.

Third row: Isberg, Ivy, Voreacos (secretary-treasurer), Long, Allison, Franchimont, Eggers, Foreman, Krausky (sergeant-at-arms), Bresick, Richard Blastick, Tumidalsky, Brackett.

Second row: McCoy, Klepach, Hill, Morris (vice-president), Swanson, Osborne, Labda (president), Mills, Vernon Schroeder, Manchak, Rueff.

First row: Usselman, Bobos, Blahunka, Siska, Gulvas, Levitt, Peters, Szypczak, Economou.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB

Top row: Quigg, Guy, Ann Soltis, Ullrich, Blastic, Kristoff, Hanusin, Obuch, Catchur, Levent, Strakey.

Second row: Curry, Helen Soltis, Pavlovic, Vine, Pivarnik, Roberts, Endres, McClaughry, Davidson, Creswell, Burnett, Gasenica.

First row: Zehme, Palenik, Bunchek, Anderson, Stavros (head-of-sports), Paunicka (treasurer), Adams (secretary), Malloy (vice-president), Pierce (president), Haugh, Dolak.

Under the sponsorship of the Girls' Athletic Club, the first intramural volleyball tournament in the history of Clark was held. According to President Lois Pierce, the chief aim of the club was to develop strong healthy minds and bodies and to stimulate outside interest among the girls.

The regular sports schedule, which consisted of softball, speedball, bowling, and soccer, was guided by Mrs. James Palmore, gym instructor.

At the GAC banquet awards were presented on the basis of athletic ability and sportsmanship. Dolores Paunicka was voted the best all-around athlete and Mary Stavros received the title, "best sport."

Social activities were not neglected as the members enjoyed several parties which were held during the course of the year.

RADIO CLUB

SCIENCE CLUB

In a world awakened to the power of atoms, jet propulsion, and radar, the Physics and Radio Clubs became of paramount importance to their members.

As if stirred by the march of modern science, the school physicists formed and chartered the Watt Club to "promote activities relating to physics beyond the classroom level."

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Paul Wilkinson and the guidance of its president, Dave Roberts, the club held organizational and movie meetings and a Christmas party. It also planned trips to the Rosenwald Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago and to the Hammond Filtration Plant.

The Kilocycle Club, sponsored by Mr. Wilkinson and presided over by Dale Ducommun, completed its ninth year of providing members with both the theory and practical experience essential to amateur radio operation.

Although seriously hampered by a shortage of radio parts, the club attained its objective by working extensively with code and by holding special discussion meetings to consider detailed phases of electronics.

PHYSICS CLUB

Top row: Hudak, Dubeck, Radermacher, Smaluk, Schlatter, Ryckman, Mullins, Donham, Osborne, Kotarski, Vobach.

Second row: Malatinka, Thomas, Fitz, Lagerberg, Sullivan, Barilla, Trucksa, Linn, Molson, Turner, Canaday, Henrikson, Skurka, Potucek.

POWDER HORN

In memory of the late Miss Evelyn Carlson, Latin teacher, whose friendly personality will never be forgotten, the Powder Horn staff chose as its theme the cultural background of Clark.

Under the direction of Mr. Max Beaty, work began on the production of the book. According to Dolores Cross, subscription manager, 603 subscriptions were sold.

The advertising staff, under the leadership of Frances Argus, broke all previous records in soliciting region merchants by compiling a grand total of 151 advertisements.

Headed by Jean Grindle, editor, the literary staff included Dolores McCampbell, class editor; Jane Campbell and Dorothea Walsko, club and organization editors; Marian Skurka and Dorothy Potucek, typists; Corlis Thomas and Diane Wayo, art editors; Dorothy Barilla, Carolyn Henrikson, Louise Sullivan, Mary Lou Turner, and Bill Vobach, feature writers.

PIONEER NEWS

For the first time in the history of the school, the Pioneer News, sponsored by Mr. Max Beaty, was named the nation's "Pacemaker" of mimeographed publications by the National Scholastic Press Association. The school paper also obtained its sixth consecutive All-American rating.

Members of the staff were Jane Campbell and Jean Grindle, co-editors; Jim Mullins, managing editor; Louise Sullivan and Dolores McCampbell, copy editors; Dorothea Walsko and Mary Lou Turner, proofreaders; Carolyn Henrikson, Bill Vobach, and Phyllis Radermacher, page editors; Art Powell, sports editor; Jim Gundy and Joe Rueff, sports reporters; Dorothy Barilla, feature columnist; Dolores Cross, Olga Arendas, Theresa Hanish, and Marian Skurka, typists; Jane Kuentzel and Betty Pivarnik, mimeoscope operators; Dorothy Barilla, Marian Misch, and Dorothy Potucek, mimeographers; Dolores Cross and Betty Petkovich, circulation managers; Lavonne Blacklock, exchange manager; and Betty Fitz and Florence Ustanik, Whiting Times correspondents.

Seated: Cross, McCampbell, Campbell and Grindle (co-editors), Mullins (managing editor), Misch.

ART CLUB

The Art Club, under the direction of Miss Beatrice Northstrum, entered numerous art contests this year and won many prizes.

Nancy Sutherland received first prize in the National Art Contest sponsored by the Junior Scholastic magazine.

In the poppy poster contest, sponsored by the Whiting American Legion, Ina Jean Linn and Corlis Thomas won first and second places for their original posters.

Top row: Jansky, Kender, Rosaschi, Haskins, Richard Blastick, Bednar.

Second row: Ollo, Leonard Blastick, Mayernik, Mores, Morris, Schroeder, Labus.

First row: Ullrich, Hrapchak, Lewis, Sampson, Richter, Eggers.

The best of luck to you Mike Bot

Top row: Eggers, Cerajewski, Condes, Wawrzyniak, Vatcoskay, Langohr, Usselman.

Third row: Sutherland, Sinnett, Farley, Kamin, Whelan, Wilkinson.

Second row: Miss Beatrice Northstrum (sponsor), McCoy, Hoppe, Chernota, Meacham, Dvorscak.

First row: Maley, Kubayko, Wayo, Thomas, Linn.

LIBRARY CLUB

Boasting one of the largest and finest libraries in the state, the Library Club, under the leadership of President Dolores Cross, completed another year of service to the students of the school.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Harriet Lake, the club planned a schedule whereby each girl spent an assigned period each day as a library assistant. During their periods in the library the girls checked out books, repaired worn copies of older editions, and kept the books neatly arranged on the shelves.

In March, 16 Library Club members received pins and medals for their work during the year.

Plans for memorial in honor of Louis Fagyas, former Clark graduates, were developed by the club. With the memorial money, the club purchased a series of books inscribed with a special book plate and biography of Louis Fagyas.

In the alcove: Eggers, Stasny, Kalicky, Bunchek, Whelan, Benetich.

Top row: Skrabak, Jerzyk, Stolarz, Keister, Franko, George.

Second row: Slazyk, Hudak, Hadley, Corbin, Barrix, Feeney, Smeberg, Pavlovic.

First row: Graham (treasurer), Cross (president), Miss Harriet Lake (sponsor), Brady (secretary), Pappas (vice-president).

STAGE PRODUCTION STAFF

Standing: Pierce, Stumph, Wilson, Semancik, Boyd, Rosaschi, Sciacero, McCoy, Greenburg, Williams.

Seated: Osborne, Catchur, Corbin, Kosior, Bodney, Zuver (manager), Wayo, Kubayko, Thomas, Linn, Stam, Olenus, Murovich.

Members of the stage crew helped make Clark's major productions, the junior and senior plays and the operetta, successful this year.

Working with members of the art department, the crew constructed and painted stage settings. The scene of the senior play, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," was the interior of a crude log cabin, while "Daniel Boone," the annual operetta, took place outside a stockade. The junior play, "Help Yourself," was staged in a bank.

In addition to making settings, the stage production staff regulated lights and made up cast members. It also assisted with assemblies and auditorium programs for the elementary students.

When Mis Oza Cunningham, dramatics instructor, asked for stage production staff members, 86 students volunteered. There was not enough work for all of them, but approximately 40 took part in stage work.

A new ruling, established at the beginning of the year, awarded a stage letter to each student putting in 120 hours of work on the stage production staff. About eight letters were awarded this year.

Lower left: Mercedes Erickson and Ray Kammer combine efforts to render a romantic hit from "Daniel Boone."

Lower right: Entire cast on stage for grand finale of annual operetta.

Clarksters learn sportsmanship and fair play through practices and thrill of competition.

ATHLETICS

Athletics are an important part of the varied program of student activities at Clark. Through daily routine practices and the thrill of competition, the student soon learns the essence of good sportsmanship and fair play. Carrying these qualities into his other activities, he is better prepared to meet the many problems which lie ahead.

Top: In a world seldom at peace the physical education instructors stress calisthenics and body-building exercises during the boys' gym class.

Bottom: Lorraine Gnass, Corlis Thomas, Joan Beckman, Elaine Osborne, and Betty Petkovich lead the student cheering sections at football and basketball games.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

With Captain Bob Rapchak the only returning varsity player from 1944's championship team, the Clark gridders went through an uneventful season winning one game and dropping seven.

Nevertheless, the old Pioneer spirit still showed in the fighting eleven and favorable signs of future possibilities were spotted in the underclassmen.

Grid Mentor Arvo Antilla's prospective backfield material for the 1946 year centers around Joe Gulvas and Everett Levitt, halfbacks; Don McCoy, fullback; and Cliff Kender, quarterback.

Experienced players such as Mack Foreman, Frank Krausky, and Paul Voreacos will shape up the forward wall.

Though the school suffered its worst season after two previous championship elevens had brought glory to GRC, credit and gratitude must go to the boys and coaches for their best and deserving efforts.

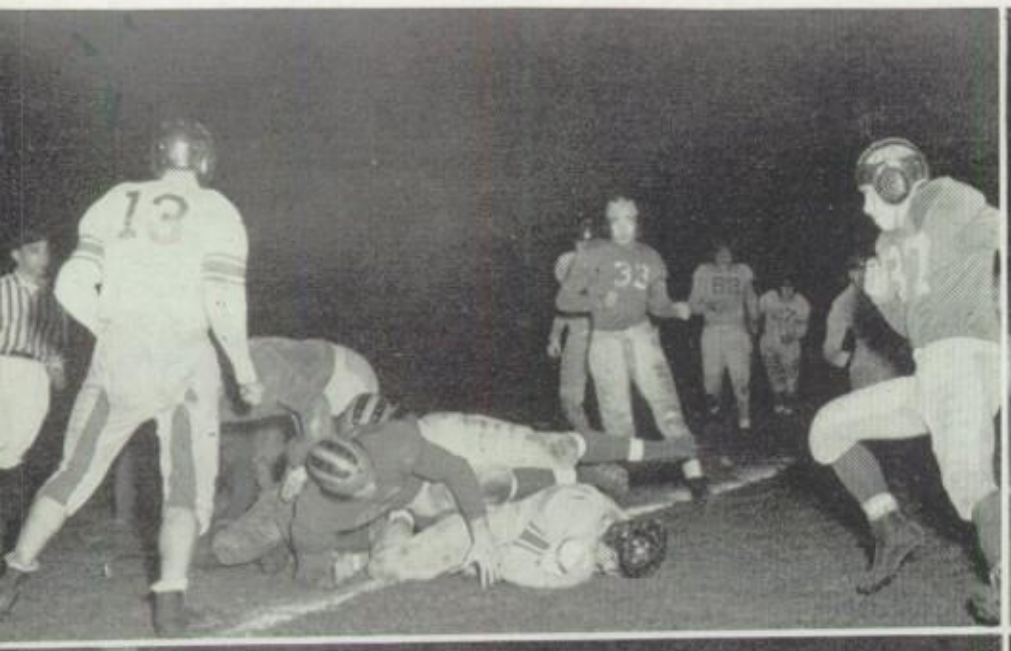
VARSITY FOOTBALL

Top row: Alfred Blahunka (manager), Blastick, Slingsby, Franchimont, Eggers, Bilka, Joe Siska, Domasica, Gasenica, Brackett.

Third row: Krausky, Horlbeck, Tumidalsky, Voreacos, Foreman, McCoy, Economou, Manchak, Gulvas, Kender, Levitt.

Second row: Steve Blahunka (manager), Coach Arvo Antilla, Donham, Kania, Frank Siska, Cotner, Mores, Kotarski, Morris, Assistant Coach Henry Zevenhouse, Petkovich (manager).

First row: Lindquist, Ourant, Podsadecki, Rapchak (captain), Osborne, Klepach, Allison, Salmon.



Upper left: Joe Gulvas, most consistent ground-gainer of all the Pioneer backs, is spilled after picking up yardage in the last game of the season against Whiting.

Middle left: With loyal Clark fans serving as the background, Cheerleaders Gnass, Beckman, Petkovich, Osborne, and Thomas pose for the Powder Horn photographer.

Lower left: Ebbie Levitt sweeps right end for a sizeable gain in the Whiting game. Only a sophomore, Ebbie has two more years to scamper in the Pioneer backfield.

Upper right: A host of Pioneer tacklers nail an Oiler back and bring him down. Whiting won the game, 18 to 0, to hand Clark its seventh defeat of the year.

Middle right: The ever-popular half-time ceremony performed by Mr. Carylye Snider's GRC band photographed here shows Drum Major Jim Eggers leading the music-makers.

Third row: Barnett, Krull, Walendowski, Svitek, Fasiang, Hmurovic, Jesernig, Bayus, Lampa, Fitz, Drach, Palagyi, Erwin Campbell, Malone.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Pioneer basketball, guided by Coach Ed Shields, witnessed a moderate cage season in which eight of twenty-one games were won.

Outstanding holdovers, the bulwark of next year's team, gained experience this year.

Only two seniors, Harry Swanson and Jerry Labda, were on the starting five. Rounding out the 1945-46 Blue and White quintet were Sophomores Howard Usselman and Ralph Porter and Junior George Peters.

Reliable Subs Joe Gulvas, George Bobos, and Prosper Franchimont added invaluable assistance.

Highlight of the season was the Pioneers' surprising 39-24 conquest over previously-unbeaten E. C. Washington, seeking its thirteenth straight victory during mid-season play.

Hammond Tech served as a menace to the Clark cagers. The Tigers whipped the boys four straight, including the school's opening sectional contest.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

TRACK

Pioneer thinly-clads, coached by Mr. Joe Franklin, proved they were one of the best-balanced squads in Clark's history. Yet, even though they boasted at least one good man in every event, the team lacked the depth needed to be a strong contender for regional honors.

Heading the list of outstanding performers was Captain Harold Morris, who stands near the top of the State's schoolboy dashmen. Harold holds school records for the 100- and 220-yard dashes and the broad jump. He is a member of the record-smashing half-mile relay team composed of Bob Bresick, Eugene Kania, and Art Gasenica.

The squad won six of seven dual contests and finished fifth in the NIHSC preliminaries.

Standing: Coach Joe Franklin, Horlbeck, Donham, Prahlow, Bresick, Isberg, McCoy, Etter, Gasenica, Mills, Rueff, Roberts, Doris.

Kneeling: Blastick, Franchimont, Kania, Long, Hill, Gulvas, Morris (captain), Kotarski.

TENNIS

Standing: Vobach, Schroeder, Zuver, Jones, Crippen, Ebenly, Quigley, Kaplan, Vladika, Cox, Mandas.

Kneeling: Gundlye, Bresick, Rueff, Szypczak, Peters.

GOLF

Standing: Coach Max Beaty, Narta, Winston, Jordan.

Kneeling: Wetnight, Kwiatowski, Langohr.

TENNIS AND GOLF

Although varsity tennis and golf were considered easy prey by their Western Division foes this season, next year should bring better results for GRC's minor sportsmen.

Coach Max Beaty's linksmen, suffering four losses against no wins, placed third in the city meet. The entire squad with the exception of Senior Al Kwiatowski, will return next year.

Varsity tennis, under the direction of Mr. Joe Griffin, won three matches and dropped six. Returning to bolster next season's squad will be: Bernard Szypczak, Joe Rueff, Norman Jones, Everett Crippen, and Louis Kaplan.

WRESTLING AND CROSS-COUNTRY

Pioneer matmen, hard hit by graduation, won four while losing five meets. They finished third in the NIHSC tournament and eighth in the state meet at Lafayette. The team was taken over in mid-season by Mr. Arvo Antilla following the resignation of Mr. R. W. Cunningham, former mentor, from the Clark faculty.

Inexperience also filled the ranks of Clark's cross-country squad as Coach Ed Shields' harriers won but one of eight dual and triangular meets. Building for future aggregations seemed to be the keynote of this year's campaign.

Best of luck to a Pioneer

WRESTLING

Second row: Swanson, Gerald Labda, Langohr, Eggers, Hill, Isberg, Buell, French, Etter, Mills, Roberts.

Kneeling: Bobos, Long.

BASEBALL

After a four-year baseball "lay-off," Coach Henry Zevenhouse put together a comparatively powerful aggregation.

The Pioneer infield, which was composed of Cliff Kender, Joe Dolak, Tom Allison, and Gerald Labda, proved to be one of the most consistent combinations in the Western Division circuit.

In addition to a fine infield, Coach Zevenhouse was gifted with one of the league's better hurlers. Bob Rapchak was both feared and respected by enemy batsmen.

GRC's district foes were Tolleston, Hammond Tech, East Chicago Roosevelt, East Chicago Washington, Horace Mann, Hammond High, Whiting, and Emerson.

Returning for another campaign will be Joe Siska, Howard Usselman, Joe Dolak, Cliff Kender, Bill Figler, Paul Vladika, and George Bobos.

Back row: Coach Henry Zevenhouse, Dolak, Drach, Meier, Svitek, Kaplan, Lodie Labda, Swanson, Petkovich, Gundy, Gulvas, Vladika, M:ndas, Kender.

Front row: Creswell, Pierce, Burnett, Davidson, Roberts.

VOLLEY BALL

Standing: Pivarnik, Vine, Haugh, Paunicka.

Kneeling: Helen Soltis, Zehme, Ann Soltis, Gasenica.

GAC SPORTS

Volleyball, basketball, tumbling, and baseball highlighted the activities of the girls' gym classes and the Girls' Athletic Club this year under the direction of Miss Fredda Goodwin and Mrs. James Palmore.

The first girls' home-room volleyball tournament in Clark's history was played in March and April. Miss Elizabeth Lyle's home room, 225, carried off honors as champs when it defeated Miss Emily Johnson's home room, 202, in the finals.

Most important of their social activities was the annual GAC banquet held February 8 in the school gym. Featured in this program were a basketball tournament and both formal and informal induction ceremonies for new members.

Smoky:
I have known enjoyed known you very much & I have had a lot of fun with you. Stay as you are right now and please don't ever change. I will always remember all the fun that I've had with you and I hope that you have fun being sick me. I will always remember you and Roby, that is Indiana can't it?

Love.

Smoky:
As one peak to another,
you are a swell Joe. We've had many of exciting times together, lets keep them up. to be good stay away from the Alamo Gardens!
